NOBLEPALOOZA 2027 - EXHIBITOR/VENDOR EXPECTATIONS & REQUIREMENTS:

1. NOTE THIS CHANGE FOR 2027 – Due to limited space and high demand for local artisans and home-based vendors, marketplace booths will be limited to businesses that have merchandise to sell. Service businesses will need to apply for space on the Expo Floor (gymnasium).
2. Add thrivenoblecounty@gmail.com to your contacts and monitor the email you provided for communications ahead of the event.
3. Submit a completed booth application and payment by no later than two weeks ahead of event:

   Pay electronically with application, or invoice, or make a check payable to "Community Learning Center". Mail paper applications and checks to Community Learning Center, Attn: NoblePalooza, 401 E Diamond Street, Kendallville, IN 46755. Include a Certificate of Insurance or signed Waiver of Liability (provided in the application packet).

4. Help promote the Expo! NoblePalooza! Has a Page and Event on Facebook – invite your friends, share & cross-promote.
5. You are responsible for meeting all applicable local and state laws and regulations. Food vendors must be compliant with Noble County Health Department guidelines. For information, call (260) 636-2191. Wi-Fi will be available on site, but NoblePalooza does not guarantee connectivity; have a backup plan.
6. Actively engage attendees to learn more about your aspirations within Noble County through product samples/sales, handouts, videos, photos, etc. Use NoblePalooza to recruit new volunteers, investors, leaders, and others who may share your passion and want to explore how they can thrive with you!
7. Set up your booth at the time assigned. An email/text message will be sent ONLY to the person you named on your application as the Booth Coordinator. They are responsible for sharing this information with anyone else working your booth.
8. Tear down your booth between 2:00 and 3:00 PM, no earlier, please.
9. Respect and abide by all published rules and regulations of the host venue and organizers.
10. If you are unable to attend after applying, please call Lori at (260) 564-4556. Booths will sell out! Refunds will be issued by request and only for circumstances out of your control.
11. QUESTIONS? Please call Lori Gagen, event coordinator, at (260) 564-4556 or email thrivenoblecounty@gmail.com.

OUR PROMISE TO YOU:

1. Attendance for the public to NoblePalooza is FREE and the event has historically attracted 600+ people. Nominal booth and table fees cover only a portion of production costs.
2. Volunteers will be on hand to help you load in (and out). Chairs will be placed and removed for you. Rented tables will be set up and taken down for you.
3. We will communicate with your Booth Coordinator multiple times ahead of the event. Please make sure the email address provided is checked routinely – including SPAM – to stay informed.
4. We will follow up after NoblePalooza to seek feedback to learn and improve any future events planned.
5. We will be champions of all participating individuals and organizations who successfully illustrate the many ways that, together, Noble County thrives!
